

Matthew 3:16

And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were open to him and he saw the spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him.

Suddenly the heavens were open to him and he saw the spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. That is amazing. This all happened after he was baptized.

In a way that happens to us when we receive our baptism. We get closer to God than ever before we're baptized. Some of us don't think about how close we really are to God. I've just found out I am close every single day.

When you pray before a test, that's being close. When you pray before the big game that's being close. When you pray for a good day, that's being close. I've learned through this that God is closer than we think and he will stay there forever. Amen.
